

Meet
Ray
Sanders

Ray Sanders, top-rated Country and Western warbler sings "A Little Bitty Tear Let Me Down," but everyone is sure Ray's initial record on the Liberty Label, titled, "A Little Bitty Tear" won't let him down.

Ray, a good ole' Kentucky lad, has worked as a disc jockey and has sung many a pretty tune on station WLEX-TV in Lexington, Kentucky. Ray was working here at the time he met Mr. Hal Smith. Smith recognized the great potential in young Ray and wasted no time in signing him to a five year contract including a recording contract on the Cullman Record Label. Ray's biggest step came through the efforts of Mr. Smith when he arranged through Joe Allison, A&R man for Liberty Records, for Ray to sign a three year contract with Liberty and cut his first session on May 4, 1960.

When Ray isn't singing and playing, he's writing songs which is one of his many talents and past times. He also finds time for weightlifting, swimming, playing golf, horseback riding and enjoying outdoor living.

On the personal side, Ray is very handsome, single, stands six foot two, weighs about 200 pounds and has dark brown eyes and light brown, curly hair and a winning smile that lets you know right away he's the type of person you'd like to get to know better.

Be sure and keep listening to Ray Sanders sing his first Liberty record that won't let him down, "A Little Bitty Tear." Also, we know that Ray's newest release for Liberty, "World So Full Of Love" will shortly be a favorite with all you Country fans.

COUNTRY SONG ROUNDUP

GOOSEBALL BROWN
LONNIE IRVING

Wait a minute fellows,
I want to stop here a minute
Where you going Gooseball Brown,
Let's go to Chicago, ha ha ha
Be on just as soon as I get me some of these black eyed peas
Okay, I'll wait for you at Gallipolis, ha ha.

There's a little truck stop
On the Carolina line
Where all good truckers stop
To kill a little time
They play the pinball song
And then they move it on
Well, they move it on up to Gallipolis
Another little place
Don't no good truckers miss
They come all size, the long and tall
They get a black cup of coffee
And take a gooseball.

They move it on up to old Fort Myers
Another cup of coffee
And a piece of apple pie
Fill their tanks full of fuel
And they check their tires
Before he moves it on
He connives a little jive
It's about four hours to Chicago,
He'll be making time
Getting back home
Is all he's got on his mind.

Now, this fancy mountain is on U.S. 52
When you come down old fancy mountain
Better know just what to do
We had a good friend,
We called him Gooseball Brown
He got up ole fancy
But he never got down
Poor boy, been taking them ole silly pills.

WE COULD

FELICE BRYANT

If anyone could find the joy that true love brings a girl and boy,
We could, we could, you and I
If anyone could ever say that their true love was here to stay
We could, we could, you and I
When you're in my arms
I know you're happy to be there
And just as long as I'm with you,
I'm happy anywhere
If anyone could pray each night to thank the Lord 'cause all is right,
We could, we could, you and I.

MUCH TOO WELL

ROGER MILLER

When I see you and you don't speak
I'm supposed to do the same
You don't want them even knowing
That you've ever known my name
I don't blame you for I've shamed you
It's my fault your castles fell
You pretend that you don't know me
'Cause you know me much too well.

I remember two young lovers building dreams
Then I recall how I cheated and mistreated
The one who loved me most of all
To your new love, he's your first love
And I guess it's just as well
You pretend that you don't know me
'Cause you know me much too well.

You walk proudly with your new love
I walk sadly by myself
You pretend that you don't know me
'Cause you know me much too well.
