

Akronites Make Records

"EUGENE AND THE CYCLONES," an Akron musical group, will introduce their newest recording Tuesday evening on WAKR.

Disc on Bryte label features "You Mean So Much To Me," written by Akronite Chet Yensen, with "You Are My Sunshine" on the flip side.

Eugene Darrah is vocalist for the group headed by pianist Pat Gallagher, and including Al Manns on guitar and Fred Standridge on drums. Manns lives in Cuyahoga Falls and the other members of the group make their homes in Goodyear Heights...

"The Callicoats," a family of folksingers, will also be introducing a new record next week. It's titled "The Bitter End" and will be distributed by Spiral. Ed Callicoa, 3774 Albrecht av., heads the group which includes his four daughters, Naomi, Sherry, Mary and Sally...

Electrical computers and bikini bathing suits save men a lot of guesswork.

Eugene & The Cyclones 1963-07-19

Clipped By:

terry_e_gordon
Sat, Sep 1, 2018