

Mrs. Mary Romberg, 2789 Chili Ave., had a surprise reunion with her sister, Mrs. Betty Wenbourne of La Mesa, Calif., on the "It Could Be You" TV show. Mrs. Romberg was flown to Hollywood from Rochester for the Feb. 11 telecast . . . A new recording concern, Rip Records, headed by 23-year-old Dick Puccio of Rochester, has been formed. Its initial waxings, to be released next week, feature the Four Ekkos, of Rochster, and Sonny Geno, also of Rochester. Two of the songs—"Toodaloo, Kangaroo," and "My Love I Give" were written by 19-year-old Bob Genovese, St. John Fisher College student.

Four Ekko's 1958-02-14

Clipped By:

terry_e_gordon
Sun, Sep 2, 2018