

TV-Radio Stars Billed At Annual FOP Dance

Sonny Flaharty, 12, Dayton, Ohio, singing star, will be a featured entertainer at the annual dance of the Fraternal Order of Police October 15 and 16 at Castle Farm.

A veteran on radio and television programs, Sonny has appeared on stations in Cincinnati, Dayton and Chicago. He also has sung at Cincinnati Garden and for many entertainments in the Dayton area.

Ollie James, Enquirer columnist, will emcee the show. Other entertainers will be the McGuire Sisters, stars of the Arthur Godfrey show; the Dancing Sparklettes and Buddy Rogers' orchestra.

Patrolman Stan (Whitey) Herber is chairman and Patrolman Joe Gramke cochairman of ie aid. Communism is born of the loss of an absolute, of a decline in morals, of emptiness of heart rather than emptiness of stomach. The Western World must realize that it will take faith in the Divine to meet the ungoded "faith" of Communism.

FLAHARTY

the dance. Tickets may be obtained from any policeman or at any district station. Proceeds will go to support the FOP's sports league and Youth Club organized to combat juvenile delinquency.

Sonny Flaharty 1954-09-26

Clipped By:

terry_e_gordon
Sun, Sep 2, 2018